UNITED STATES' PROPOSED
STATEMENT TO THE JURY RE: BIFURCATION

19 On January 5, 2006, the Court requested each of the parties to submit a proposed 20 statement to the Court that would explain to the jury the bifurcated nature of the trial in 21 this matter. The government hereby submits the following proposed statement:

22 The evidence in this case will be presented to you in two parts. In the initial part of the 23 case, you will hear evidence regarding the charges that I have already summarized for you, 24 including conspiracy, perjury, subornation of perjury, mail fraud and contempt of court. After 25 the parties have presented all of their evidence to you with respect to those charges, the 26 attorneys for the government and the defendants will deliver their closing arguments to you with 27 respect to those charges. I will then instruct you on the law that you must apply in determining 28 the defendants' guilt on those charges. After the closing arguments and the instructions, I will
