

PROFFER AGREEMENT

With respect to the meeting of Magda Mohsen, ^{METWALLY} ("Client") and her attorney, Doron Weinberg, with Robin Harris and Kyle Waldinger of the United States Attorney's Office, and Chris Forvour and Greg Nestor of the Federal Bureau of Investigation held at the offices of the United States Attorney for the Northern District of California ("the Office") on January 20, 2006 ("the meeting"), the following understandings exist:

(1) In any prosecution brought against Client by the Office, except a prosecution for false statements, obstruction of justice, or perjury, the Office will not offer in evidence any statements made by Client at the meeting (A) in its case-in-chief or (B) at sentencing. The Office may use any statements made by Client and any other information derived directly or indirectly from the meeting for the purpose of obtaining leads to other evidence, which evidence may be used by the Office in any stage of a criminal prosecution (including but not limited to detention hearing, trial or sentencing).

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) above, the Office may use any statements made by Client at the meeting for any purpose (A) should Client testify or (B) to rebut any evidence offered, or factual assertions made, by or on behalf of Client at any stage of a criminal prosecution (including but not limited to detention hearing, trial or sentencing).

(3) It is further understood that this agreement is limited to the statements made by Client at the meeting and does not apply to any oral, written or recorded statements made by Client at any other time or to any other information provided at the meeting. Moreover, the provisions of Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(f) and Fed. R. Evid. 408 and 410 do not apply to any statements made by Client at the meeting. No understandings, promises, or agreements have been entered into with respect to the meeting other than those set forth in this agreement, and none will be entered into unless memorialized in writing and signed by all parties.
